The Pacific Mail liner China arrived off port unusually early yesterday morning, docking at the Channel wharf senger list for Honolulu and quite a number of through passengers. En route she sighted the Doric, Sonoma and Manchuria.

The China brought the Right Reverend, the Bishop of Zeugma, and his party and among other well known Honolulu people were Fred Angus returning from a pleasure trip to California; J. M. Dowsett, wife, two children and maid; Mrs. Milus Parkhurst accompanied by her sister Mrs. Emily

U. S. Marshal Shine and his deputy E. Doyle, of San Francisco, were among the Honolulu passengers. They are bringing back the three soldiers wanted here on the charge of counterfeiting.

Among the through passengers are: George Lynch, the war correspondent, who is going to the Far East; Mrs. Huntington Wilson, the wife of the secretary of the American Legation at Tokio: E. J. Roberts, Thomas Mc-Combe and Dr. W. R. Manning who are going to accept positions on the S. S. Nippon Maru which goes into commission this month, and several naval people going out to Manila for assignment, Commander George H. Peters, and Paymaster W. F. Gray. Captain J. K. Thompson, U.S.A., is also bound for Manila,

The China sails today at 6 in the morning.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Rithet is cleaned up and ready load sugar. Possibly she may be ble to get away next week.

The Russian cruiser Lena will probably depart from Honolulu before many of the Advertiser readers see this. She is scheduled to sail at six o'clock for Vladivostok, whence it is expected she will be ordered to Odessa for extensive overhauling, repairs and refitting.

The accident to the Californian makes t necessary to change her sailing date. General Agent Morse is now advised that she will leave Seattle and Tacoma for Honolulu direct on the 23rd inst. There is no change in the sailing time of the Nebraskan from San Francisco. The Nevadan will leave Kahului today for Puget Sound and thence to San Francisco.

morning and will take mail, although it is expected that she will be ten or eleven days on the trip. She sails at nine and the mail closes at 7:30. She will probably not beat the Thomas into San Francisco more than a few hours, if at all, although the Thomas will not arrive in Honolulu from Manila and Guam before Monday.

The U. S. Quartermaster's office expects the Logan to be in from San Francisco this afternoon or tomorrow morning. She left an hour before the China last Saturday, with 4000 tons of quartermaster's and commissary suptry and about 100 marines. Her cabin accommodations, however, are entire'v filled. The Buford arrived from Honoulu at San Francisco on the 22nd and will sail again this way on the 15th
